October 25, 2016 | UCLA

On October 27th, 2015, over 35 startups and 550 students came together for the second annual Bruin Startup Fair. With it being such a large success among companies and students alike, we are pleased to present the 3rd Bruin Startup Fair, now called StartupFair.la, on October 25th, 2016. With over 700 active students and 1500 engineers in our network, you will be able to meet some of the best and brightest UCLA has to offer. The Startup Fair will be an excellent opportunity for local startups to recruit at UCLA, and we would absolutely love for you to be a part of it!

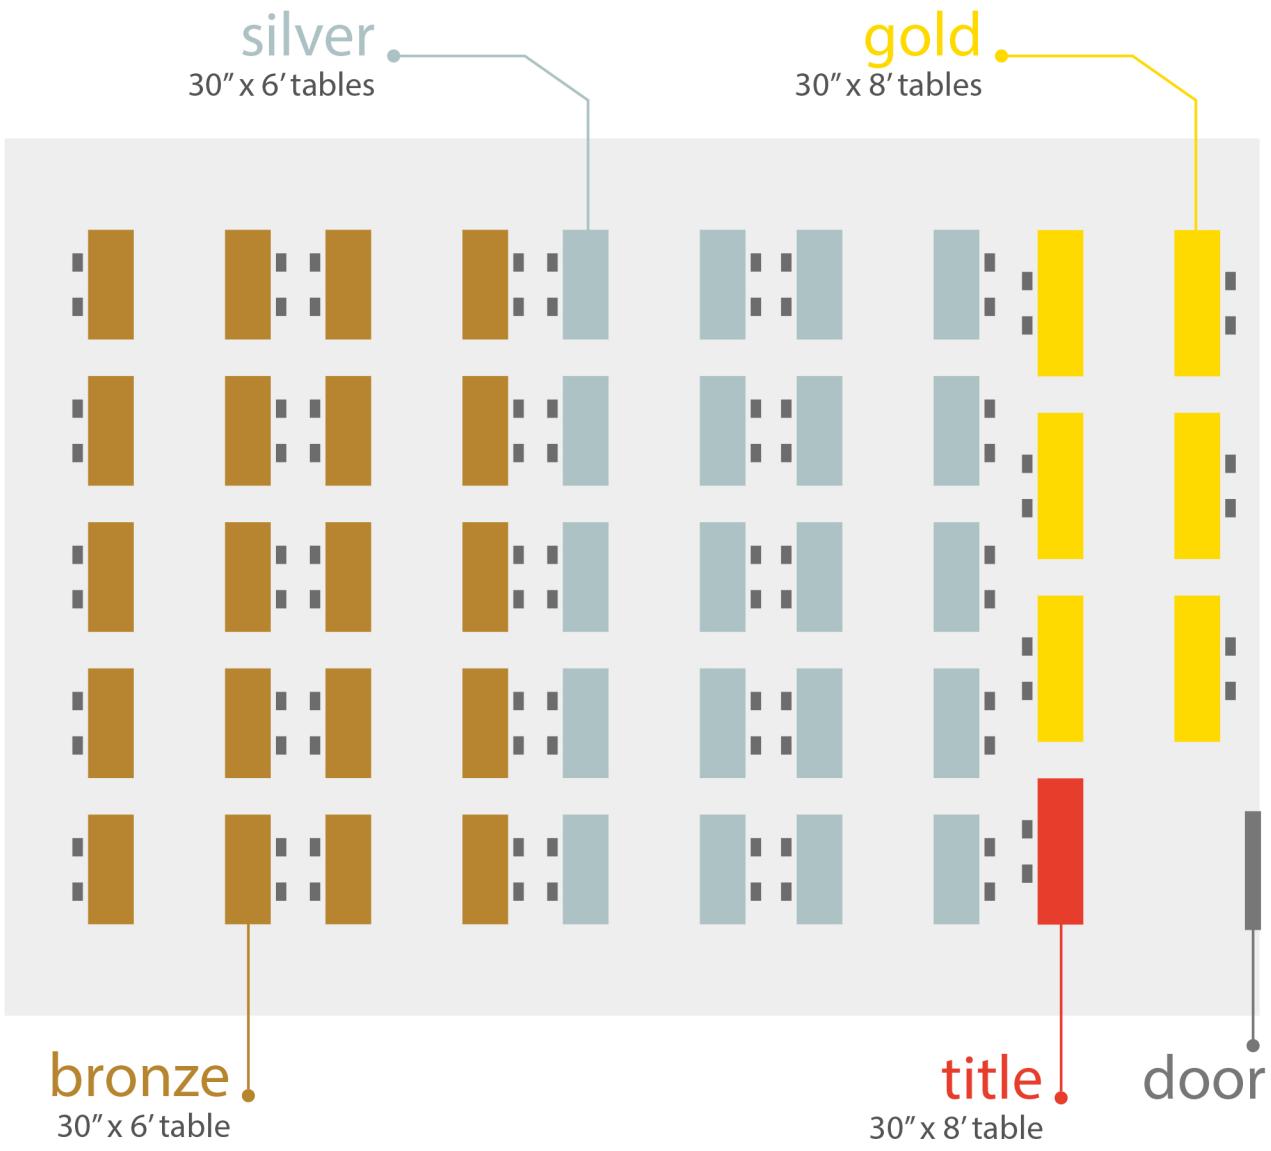

Through this unique opportunity, you will be able to:

1. Recruit some of the most driven and motivated subsets of the UCLA student body for full-time and part-time positions.
2. Secure the most promising summer interns before the peak of internship recruiting season.
3. Advertise your company brand through the website, t-shirts, and all the marketing materials.
4. Meet and network with other up-and-coming startups from and around the Los Angeles area.
